

Overflowing Buckets

Superheroes are all around you. Draw a picture of a person you admire.

MY SUPERHERO

Detective Do-Right

Watch your classmate very carefully, and try to catch him or her doing something right.

_____ Following a classroom rule

_____ Making someone smile or laugh

_____ Including others in activities, games, or conversations

_____ Being kind instead of pushing or grabbing

_____ Saying "please" and "thank you"

_____ Helping someone

_____ Meeting someone new

_____ Asking others to play

_____ Listening

_____ Sharing

Paste
Detective Do-Right
Certificate Here

Today I Am Going to Fill _____ 's Bucket

A Drop for Your Bucket

Copyright © 1970 Gallup, Inc. All rights reserved. How Full Is Your Bucket? For Kids

How Many Buckets Did I Fill Today?

Whose buckets did you fill?

What did you do?

_____ I called someone by the name they like to be called.

_____ I helped someone.

_____ I said something nice to someone.

_____ I thanked someone for doing something nice for me or others.

_____ I stopped myself from dipping out of someone else's bucket.

_____ I made someone happy.

Wow Your World

on the bus

in the hallway

on the playground or at practice

at home

Taking It Home

How can I make my home a bucket-filling place?

- _____ I will tell my family about bucket dipping and bucket filling.
- _____ When I see or hear someone bucket dipping, I will ask him or her to stop.
- _____ I will include my brothers or sisters in games and activities.
- _____ I will teach my family how to fill each other's buckets.
- _____ I will ask my family to create dipper-free zones: No dipping at the dinner table. No dipping in the family room.
- _____ I will be an example for others. I will be a bucket filler.

Caption This

Drip.

My Favorite Drop

$12.95

ISBN 978-1-59562-050-7

5 1 2 9 5 >

9 781595 620507